

A Flexible Framework for Equipping Christian Laborers

Removing the Leadership Bottleneck

Prepared by Todd Stewart (heavily influenced by Gary DeLashmutt of Xenos)

Assumptions

1. We are called to give ourselves to equipping laborers for the harvest.
 - Jesus intentionally trained laborers:
 - Matthew 10:1-4; Mark 3:13-19; Luke 6:12-16
 - Jesus calls us to do likewise:
 - Matthew 9:36-38; Matthew 28:16-20
 - Paul intentionally trained laborers:
 - Acts 16:1-3; Acts 20:4
 - Paul calls us to do likewise:
 - Ephesians 4:11-13; 2 Timothy 2:1-2

2. Even as we equip others, we are both ultimately still disciples of Jesus.

3. It is usually best to equip laborers who are in your LIFE Group.
 - Allows for supervised equipping opportunities.
 - Allows you to see how the emerging laborer interacts with a variety of people in a variety of situations over the course of time.
 - Allows you to model & value equipping before others in the LIFE Group.
 - LIFE Group provides a good opportunity for the one being equipped to start equipping others.
 - Provides a good opportunity for the one being equipped to develop into a co-leader.

4. There are several differences between helping and equipping:

HELPING	EQUIPPING
Focused on general care for younger disciples	Intentionally developing Christian laborers
Focused on the person's spiritual growth	Focused on helping & equipping others
Hoping to persuade people to become laborers	Developing someone who has become a laborer
Unconditional - without expectation of commitment	Conditional - defined & agreed upon expectations
Sporadic & Ongoing	Consistent & for a period of time
Some Examples of Helping: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Helping someone read the Bible & pray <input type="checkbox"/> Helping someone be assured of salvation <input type="checkbox"/> Helping someone learn how to develop Christian friendships <input type="checkbox"/> Helping someone with their marriage <input type="checkbox"/> Helping someone with habitual sin 	Some Examples of Equipping: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Studying a book of the Bible together <input type="checkbox"/> Coach someone as they help or train others <input type="checkbox"/> Read an equipping-focused book together <input type="checkbox"/> Equip someone to share the gospel with their neighbors <input type="checkbox"/> Teaching someone how to teach the Bible

5. Helping and equipping are rarely mutually exclusive:
 - Some helping happens in the midst of equipping
 - Some equipping happens in the midst of helping

6. Helping is really important too!!!

Selecting Someone to Equip

INADEQUATE CRITERIA	ADEQUATE CRITERIA
Age (spiritual or biological)	Hunger for the Word
Spiritual gifting	Sharing Christ & Serving Others
Personality	Makes time for growth
Personal affinity	Takes steps of faith
Secular success	Authentic about failures, but progressing

Why is selection so important?

- It is a huge, time-consuming, multi-year commitment!
- In saying “yes” to one person, you are invariably saying “no” to another person.
- The multiplication of your ministry and your LIFE Group is heavily dependent upon the quality of your equipping relationships.
- Jesus demonstrated its importance by staying up all night praying through His selection process (see Luke 6:12-16)!

What do you do if you are unsure about a person?

- Initiate irregular and temporary 1-on-1 times.
- Give the person an assignment & see if he/she comes through on it.
- Get counsel from other godly people.
- Flavor all the above with prayerfulness.

Won't others get jealous? Doesn't this show favoritism?

- A certain amount of “holy jealousy” is good for people, if it evokes in them a desire to make progress in godliness.
- Yes, it does show favoritism towards those who are most hungry for the things of God. But, hey, Jesus showed the same favoritism!

Getting Started

1. Clearly explain your purpose
 - Cast vision for them of the importance of equipping
 - Share what you have seen in them
 - Share what they can become
2. Clarify your expectations
 - Make them few
 - Make them clear
 - Make honesty a priority
3. Explain the four areas you'll be working on together:

KNOWLEDGE	CHARACTER
SKILLS	PRAYER

4. Ask them if they really want to do it...and allow time for an informed decision.
5. Fill in a present step for each area...and both keep for future reference.

Working the Framework

KNOWLEDGE

Goals:

- Developing a biblical worldview
- Understanding how to read & study the Bible

Suggestions & Thoughts:

- Daily Bible reading plan
- Read & discuss a biblical book together
- Overview the Bible & each book
- Read & discuss Christian books
- Discuss and/or take a LIFE Institute class together
- Recommend books, CD's, etc. for private study

CHARACTER

Goals:

- Building godly character:
 - Developing FAITH:
 - Learning to value what God values
 - Living a life that shows you trust God & His words
 - Developing HOPE:
 - Learning to draw strength from God in difficulty
 - Living a life that is invested in eternity
 - Developing LOVE:
 - Learning how to relate to all people in godly ways
 - Living a life that loves all people well

Suggestions & Thoughts:

- Model authenticity & vulnerability
- Keep the focus on becoming a more effective laborer, not merely personal healing
- Resistance without replacement is futile
- Model God's grace & patience, but challenge when needed
- Confer & refer when outsiders can be part of the solution

SKILLS

Goals:

- Develop & enhance personal ministry

Suggestions & Thoughts:

- Set current ministry goals
- Evaluate progress & give feedback
- Help them develop a process for achieving goals
- Teach them ministry principles in addition to providing specific problem-solving
- Help them live out of & develop their SHAPE:
 - Spiritual gifts
 - Heart
 - Abilities
 - Personality
 - Experiences
- Help them minimize their weaknesses
- Take them with you whenever possible
- Teach them how to handle ministry success AND failure

PRAYER

Goals:

- Demonstrate a dependent lifestyle of prayer
- Help them realize that “apart from Him we can do nothing” of eternal value

Suggestions & Thoughts:

- Our prayers tend to demonstrate what we really value
- Cast vision for them in prayer together
- Always pray together:
 - Sometimes at the beginning
 - Sometimes at the end
 - Sometimes spontaneously
 - Sometimes as you walk or drive
 - Sometimes on longer retreats together
- Season the other 3 areas (knowledge, character, skills) with prayer

Closing Thoughts on Equipping Laborers

- Don't just focus on your areas of strength at the expense of the other 3 areas.
- Sometimes you must move back to helping for a period of time, but always push for it to move back to equipping if he/she is willing and able.
- Don't stop just because he/she is equipping and/or helping others. Wait until multiple generations are flourishing.
- Relish in the moment when he/she becomes a consistent co-laborer.
- Celebrate his/her progress through verbal affirmation & by transitioning the relationship when appropriate.
